

CAMP MASSAD –

The Camp Where Creativity Runs Wild

Jonas Chernick, Gemini award winning actor featured in WJT's production of Death of a Salesman, knows why you should send your children to Camp Massad ...

"Camp Massad was the single most profound influence on my childhood and adolescence. Camp Massad was where I first stood on a stage and performed before an audience, and where I first put pen to paper and wrote a play. My experiences over those twelve magical summers inspired creativity, nurtured a passionate spirit and developed confidence that encouraged me to pursue my greatest dreams."

- JONAS CHERNICK
