

NEW PROGRAM DIRECTOR AT CAMP MASSAD

More than a decade after he first stepped off the bus as a first time camper at Camp Massad, Cole Leinburd is thrilled to be assuming the role of Massad Program Director for the summer of 2009. Cole's vast experience and expertise in all aspects of Massad's programming, combined with his love of the camp and his excellent management and interpersonal skills, is guaranteed to make this coming summer at Massad one of the most memorable ever.

Cole has been on staff at Massad since 2003, progressing from being a cabin counselor to advanced camp coordinator to a member of the Hanhallah, or administrative team that facilitates and supervises all camp programs and activities.

This coming summer, Cole will be joined on the Hanhallah by returning Assistant Program Director Samara Carroll, who also has been on staff since 2003. Susan Schipper and Avi Posen will round out the Hanhallah.

Both Susan and Avi are currently students at the Rothberg International School at the Hebrew University of Jerusalem. Samara also is an alumna of that program and a recent graduate of the University of Manitoba. Cole is a student in the Asper School of Business at the University of Manitoba.

Eemah Lesley Jacob will also be back at Massad in 2009 for her ninth consecutive summer. Presently she is making plans for both the annual camper reunion, to take place at Wheelies at 1010 Logan, on Sunday January 25, from 5:30-8:00, and for the formal Registration Day, to take place at the Asper Jewish Community Campus on Sunday, February 22, from 9:00 to 12:30 p.m.

Of course, campers are welcome to register any time before that date. In fact, all campers who register before Friday, February 27 will automatically be eligible for a $100 fee reduction.

Further details about this early bird registration and all session dates and fees can be found in the summer of 2009 brochure, which will be arriving in your mail in the next few days. All of this information is also available on the Camp Massad website www.campmassad.ca .
